4-H'ERS WENT TO "CAMP DESTINATION DISNEY" AT CAMP TEHAMA

Seventy seven 4-H members and thirty two teen counselors from Glenn County attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Camp Tehama June 21st - 24th, reports Glenn County 4-H Program Representative Deanna Rogers. This year's camp was under the direction of Camp Director Bobbi Fissori and Youth Director Chelsea Becerra. The theme of the camp was "Camp Destination Disney", with each cabin representing a different Disney movie or theme. There were many activities offered, including skit planning, fort building, ice cream making, sport games, fishing, crafts and "The Disney Games". 4-H'ers had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H'ers from kindergarten through 8th grade participated as campers, while the high school 4-H members served as youth counselors.

Youth counselors included Staci Bettencourt, Ashley Bouldin, Courtney Brown, Genna Camozzi, Cole Curry, Casey Deitz, Jaycee Dobbins, Alex Domingo, Stephanie Evans, Shayna Fissori, Alora Holm, Jacob Hricik, Jordan Hughes, Annie Krueger, Kelsey Lohse, Nathan Long, Steven Long, Jamie Marron, Eric Massa, Maigen Matteucci, Judy Mendes, Taylor Miller, J.
